SMITH MUST ANSWER. BANKER EUGENE KELLY ILL. DIAMONDS,

Bail for the Grand Jury.

Sa'co 1 - Keeper Gloistein Seemed Stricken with Paralysis and in Unwilling to Prosecute.

After Being Stabbed and Beaten He Was Full of Sympathy.

"Silver Dollar" Smith's pull has been alysis on Tuesday last. Up to be hard at work during the past twenour hours, and it almost had him set in the Essex Market Police Court this afternoon for want of a complainant against him.

Mr. Gloistein, the stabbed and beaten saloon-keeper, who said only a day or so ago that he was going to force the case him, has suddenly changed his mind to-day, when questioned in the court an "Evening World" reporter, re-rked sullenly:

"Well, they are going too hard on the r fellow," meaning Smith, against om he had been so bitter.

The case was called by Justice Simms it 2.15 o'clock, and at that time none of at 2.15 o'clock, and at that time none of the parties were in court.

The Justice did not seem to like this and he announced that if Smith or his counsel did not put in an appearance in a very short time he would declare the ball bond forfeited.

About this time Smith was with his counsel in the Pulltzer Building. They must have had an intimation of the temper the Police Justice was in, for they at once hurried over to Essex Market and were in the court at 2.20 o'clock. So was Gloistein and his counsel, H. J. Goldsmith.

asked thru his client be discharged from custody.

"It is not within my jurisdiction as a Police Justice, said Justice Simms, "to discharge where felony is charged, so I shall have to hold the defendant for the action of the Grand Jury. The bail will be fixed at $2,000."

Smith was asked to sign the paper which bore his pedigree, but his counsel refused to allow him to do so.

The bondsman who qualified in that amount was Samue! Engel, a provision deater, of Essex Market.

Afterwards Smith refused to talk about his case, except to deny that either he or his friends had brought any influence to bear upon Gloistein to withdraw his charge of felonious assault.

"Silver Dellar," usually bright and chipper, was not in a pleasant mood over the turn affairs had taken.
Gloistein, immediately after leaving the court-room, went to his saloon. He repeated that he thought they were going too hard on Smith, and said, half unwillingly, that he had not withdrawn his charge.

nisioner Shields to-day and remanded intil Wednesday for a hearing.

He was indicted yesterday and arested at his home, in Mount Kisco, is was brought to the city and locked up in Ludiow Street Jall all night.

His attorney, J. V. Harrison, busied simself all the morning in hunting up all for his client. He succeeded parally shortly after noon, and at 12.30 resented John Bentiey, a dealer in urinting materials at 18 and 30 Chambers street, this city, residing at 1228 Pulton street. Brooklyn, as one of fait's sureties to Commissioner Shields, the was accepted as one of Tait's bondsmen.

Tait was taken back to the Marshal's strivate office until the other bondsman pould be secured. He refused again to asy anything about his case, his health is his future intentions, and his attornies was equally positive in refusing to lineuss the matter.

The second bondsman for Tait was formined at 3 o'clock this afternoon, qualifying for $5,000. He was Peter Mc-Cormack, a painter, of 20 Duane street. He ewns his residence, at 1% East Seventy-eighth street, which is clear of incumbrance, and valued at $5,000.

Tait was then discharged from custody and returned home to Mount Kisco in the same listless, dazed condition as when he was brought down under arrest brought down under arrest

BUGENE KELLY, SR.

Mr. Kelly passed a fairly good night, but is reported this morning as being very weak. Owing to his extreme age his physician and friends fear he may not five until night. He is attended by Dr. McCreery, of Lexington avenue and Thirty-seventh street, who is by his bedside almost continually. Mr. Kelly was born in Trillick, County Tyrone, Ireland, in 1808. His parents were industrious farmers, but on account of hard times Eugene Kelly came to this country at the age of twenty, landing in New York with only $1 in his pocket.

He began $18 business carear as cierk in the dry-goods firm of Donnally Bros. Here he rose rapidly until the dissolution of the firm. He next tried good mining in '9, and affectwards started the San Francisco banking-house of Donnohue, Kelly & Raiston.

He moved his business to New York during the late war, and lost large sums on Southern loans. Mr. Kelly was speed for quiet philanthropy, and gave large sums to charity.

His inters in Home Rule and his gift of $20,000 to the Irish Parliamentary Fund are well known, as is his honorary appointment of "Camerier de Cape et d'Epee" in the Pope's household.

At the age of eighty Mr. Kelly retired from active business. He is estimated as being worth from ten to fifteen million dellars. EUGENE KELLY, SR.
